

IS THAT YOU?

GREGG DREISE

- From the author and illustrator of the bestselling award-winning children's picture book series that includes Super Snake (2024), Silly Birds (2014), Kookoo Kookaburra (2015), Mad Magpie (2016) and more
- A fun way for children and parents to learn new verbs and the names of some Australian animals

Age range 0 to 5

Is that you? by Gregg Dreise is a board book that encourages young readers to learn new verbs and adverbs: frogs bop, snakes slide, lizards hide, Tasmanian devils growl...can you make a low roar?

Filled with adorable and distinctive illustrations from the creator of the Silly Birds series, this story is a great book for beginners and sits beautifully alongside Gregg's other board book Where's my baby? (2023).

About the author:

Kylie Gatjarrawuy Mununggurr was born in Darwin and moved to Gapuwiyak with her mother where she started school. When a school opened on her grandmother's country Raymangirr Kylie went to school there. The language of Raymangirr is Marrangu but this story is told in Djambarrpuyju because everyone understands Djambarrpuyju in Northeast Arnhem Land, although there are many other languages.

RAYMANGIRRBUY DHÄWU, WHEN I WAS A LITTLE GIRL

KYLIE GATJAWARRAWUY MUNUNGGURR

- The first children's book set in, and written about, the remote Arnhem Land homeland Raymangirr
- Includes a simple, easy-to-use Djambarrpuyju pronunciation guide
- Children will be entranced by this stunning depiction of a different country and way of life
- Stunning, distinctively Top End illustrations
- Comprehensive teacher notes tied to the Australian curriculum
- Well suited to those that love anything by Magabala Books

Age range 4 to 8

'When I stayed out bush I sat with my grandmother and watched her paint. I used to get boxes and paint on. She painted with ochres and glue. Later she showed me how to make the marawat (hair) brush to do the fine line work.'

An artistically stunning story of Kylie Gatjarrawuy Mununggurr's life growing up on her grandmothers Country in Raymangirr, a remote Yolŋu homeland in North East Arnhem Land in the Top End of Australia.

Told in both Djambarrpuyju and English, Raymangirrbuy dhäwu, When I was a little girl is a sweet story of the author's experiences with her grandmother and her community. From learning to grind ochre and paint, to hunting for bush honey (guku), ceremonial dances, and full-moon night fishing with a big shark, each vignette of Kylie's life is filled with humour and nostalgia for her peaceful childhood.

Developed with the support of Gapuwiyak Culture and Arts centre and Kylie's mother and grandmother, young readers will experience life in Raymangirr country and gain important insights into cultural practices.

CUBBY HUNTING

CORAL VASS, ILLUSTRATED BY NICKY JOHNSTON

- Award-winning author and illustrator team
- Themes of anxiety and fear
- Empowering story for small children

About the author:

Sarah Luke is a teacher and historian. She likes researching in archives, finding information about people from the past, and writing non-fiction books about them. At other times she is inspired to write historical fiction stories, so that people who merely ghost through archives also have a chance to be remembered. Sarah likes exploring old places in Sydney — particularly sandstone palaces and mossy, dark graveyards. Marion and the Forty Thieves is her first children's book.

MARION AND THE FORTY THIEVES

SARAH LUKE

- Rollicking middle-grade adventure based in history, featuring turn-of-the-century Sydney street and wharf life
- Based on deep research using primary sources
- Connects to HASS curriculum points for Grade 6; teachers' notes will be provided
- Features a strong female heroine and cast of diverse characters, including a key character with a disability
- Author is an expert on the Sobraon school-ship and keen to support the book with promotional opportunities

Age range 8 to 12

A smirking boy shuffled past the door, and Marion, hands shaking, quickly turned the key in the lock. It was Cotterson, the boy from Sewers Canal who wanted to burn the Sobraon. Her heart jolted.

The barge had delivered the Forty Thieves onto the ship!

Marion's life is anything but ordinary. The daughter of the principal, Captain Neitenstein, she is the only girl aboard a magnificent floating boys' school, anchored permanently in Sydney Harbour in the late 1800s. Her best friend has boarded a steamship to France and now it's just her and this ship full of ragtag schoolboys. One night, Marion discovers that a new student, Alexander Walker, is escaping the ship to meet up with his vicious gang, the Forty Thieves. Marion bravely follows Walker into the frightening Rocks neighbourhood to investigate...What are the Forty Thieves up to and will Marion be able to stop them before it's too late?

Based on the real life Marion Neitenstein, this middle-grade 'faction', which offers an immersive and historically accurate experience of an unusual nineteenth-century institution for neglected boys. Marion's middle-class life is contrasted with Sydney slum life and wharf culture. Other important real characters appear, including businessman Quong Tart and the head of the Forty Thieves gang Joseph Bragg.

The author used primary sources to research the story, such as old gaol inmate records and even Quong Tart's original menus, and delves into these sources in the endmatter, covering topics such as the Nautical school-ships Vernon and Sobraon and their captains, the Rocks, Quong Tart and more. The text is accompanied by real photographs from the ship, portraits of three Sobraon boys from the admissions book and images of Sydney street scene from the period.

THE GREAT EXPEDITION

PETER CARNAVAS

- Now in paperback!
- The Great Expedition is a delightful parody about five children attempting to cross the park to deliver cake to Grandma. It is inspired by the true story of Robert O'Hara Burke and William John Wills, who, in 1860-61, led an exploring party to become the first Europeans to cross the Australian continent from Melbourne to the north coast
- Key themes are adventure, imagination and determination
- Quirky illustrations and playful text by award-winning author/illustrator

Age range 3 to 6

On August 20th, a group of young explorers was charged with a dangerous mission. They were to travel across wild country to deliver a valuable parcel. The journey would be punishing. It would test the resolve of the brave young explorers. Most of all, it would provide us all with a pair of unlikely heroes to admire and remember for many years to come. This is their story.

THE EVERYWHERE ATOM

A Journey Through the Carbon Cycle and Climate Change

CHRISTINE SHEARER, ILLUSTRATED BY KAZ CLARKE

- With the widespread adoption of the Next Generation Science Standards, teachers and librarians are eager for accessible, kid-friendly resources that describe scientific issues in an easy-to-understand way
- Kids are realising at an early age that they are inheriting a planet that is in grave danger, and scientifically rigorous material that injects an element of hope is not easy to come by

Age range 5 to 9

Take a wild ride with the carbon atom through a history of Earth's climate, from dinosaurs to woolly mammoths to today's climate crisis.

The Everywhere Atom blends science, humour, and cartoon atoms to explain how the carbon cycle affects the climate, today and throughout Earth's history. The carbon atom is the most basic building block on Earth and its movement around the planet shapes the climate. While the carbon cycle is central to understanding climate change, it is often missing from children's climate books, making this a critical addition to classrooms and libraries.

SAY GOODBYE...SAY HELLO

CORI DOERRFELD

- Now in paperback!
- Many kids have a difficult time letting go and stepping into the unknown, and this book provides comfort and reassurance about changes big and small

Age range 3 to 6

Change and transitions are hard, but Say Goodbye...Say Hello demonstrates how, when one experience ends, it opens the door for another to begin. It follows two best friends as they say goodbye to snowmen, and hello to stomping in puddles. They say goodbye to long walks, butterflies, and the sun...and hello to long evening talks, fireflies, and the stars. But the hardest goodbye of all comes when one of the friends has to move away. Feeling alone isn't easy, and sometimes new beginnings take time. But even the hardest days come to an end, and you never know what tomorrow will bring.

'...delivers a powerful message about difficult goodbyes in a deft and moving manner. Sublime!' — Publishers Weekly

'Doerrfeld is carving a lovely niche with sweet, deeply attuned books for the littlest audience... wonderfully soft, jaunty illustrations convey the spark and vulnerability of the preschool years.'

IDEA MAKERS

15 Fearless Female Entrepreneurs

LOWEY BUNDY SICHOL

- Now in paperback!
- New price point and format ideal for school library collections

Age range 12+

Idea Makers shares the incredible stories of 15 women who changed the world through their entrepreneurship. Author Lowey Bundy Sichol presents five industries that women are leading in recent years: food, fashion and clothing, health and beauty, science and technology, and education.

Readers learn about how the women featured risked their early careers, gave up their salaries, and sometimes even went against the approval of their families to follow their passions and start their own businesses. Today, these women are modern leaders worth billions of dollars and employing tens of thousands of individuals.

HEIRS OF BONE AND SEA

KAY ADAMS

- Dive into the grand adventure of two young royals seeking to end the war between their two kingdoms

'A Sapphic fantasy romance series-opener brimming with blood and longing' — Kirkus

Age range 13 to 17

Evhen, princess — no, queen — of Vodaeard, is on a revenge mission. After witnessing her parents' brutal murder by the king of Marama and the horror of his undead army, she's vowed to kill his daughter. It'll be poetic justice and also take away his supernatural edge in the war. But when she realises the princess might be an ignorant pawn, she changes course and hides her royal identity — after all, she can't trust an enemy, no matter how beautiful she is.

INSECTORAMA

The Marvelous World of Insects

ILLUSTRATED BY LISA VOISARD, TRANSLATED BY JEFFREY K. BUTT

- Learn loads of in-depth and exciting information about the life of North American insects and how to identify them

**Winner of the JP Redouté Children's Book Prize****

Age range 10 to 12

The world is full of insects. They far outweigh humans on earth, and we couldn't survive long without them. But do you really know them? Vetted by entomologist Mathilde Gaudreau, the 30 portraits of Insectorama will give you an insect-eye view of some of the most wonderful you can find in parks and forests. On top of that, you'll learn plenty of fun facts you can share with friends and family: crickets can hear thanks to eardrums located in their abdomen, unlike the Spring Field Cricket that hears through the knees. Don't forget about the flies and butterflies who can taste with their legs.

GURAWUL THE WHALE

An ancient story for our time
MAX DULUMUNMUN HARRISON,
ILLUSTRATED BY LAURA LA ROSA

- An amazing story — how 14,000 years ago the whales led humans to safety with a trail of bubbles when the ancient Bassian Plain flooded, cutting Tasmania off from the mainland
- Ancient story told to a modern audience
- Stunning images, beautifully designed

**Shortlisted for the ABIA Small Publishers' Children's Book of the Year****

More than 70 years ago, the ancient legend of Gurawul the whale was passed down to Yuin Elder Uncle Max Dulumunmun Harrison by his grandfather and uncles. He promised them that one day he would travel to the southern land, Tasmania, and search for the whale dreaming of their Ancestors.

This exquisitely illustrated book tells the story of Uncle Max's journey to fulfil that promise, and how he eventually came face to face with Gurawul.

Filled with important cultural knowledge and personal stories, Uncle Max sadly died before Gurawul could be published, and his family are continuing his legacy to show how science is finally beginning to catch up with these 'old blackfella' stories.

PHONOBET

KATHY WEEDEN, ILLUSTRATED BY KIM DRANE

- A fun phonics teaching tool with original, clever rhyming text in the style of Dr Seuss

**Shortlisted for the CBCA Award for New Illustrator****

**Shortlisted for the ABDA Best Children's Non-Fiction Book****

Age range 4 to 6

Phonobet is a modern-day, Australian answer to Dr Seuss's ABC. This very clever rhyming text takes an onomatopoeic romp through the 44 phonemes of Australian (and British) English, comparing sounds to trees, bees, trains, robots, monkeys, pirates and more. The text aligns with primary-school phonics programs and could be used by educators in this field, but is equally successful as a fun read-aloud book for parents of 4- to 6-year-olds.
