HIGHER GROUND

TULL SUWANNAKIT

- Beautifully illustrated by award-winning author/illustrator whose books have been translated into many languages throughout the world
- Higher Ground combines elements of a graphic novel with illustrated picture book and diary, which provides a unique and innovative reading experience
- The use of sparse text and prose not only captures the mood and tone of the narrative but also aids readers with learning differences
- The story teaches readers the importance of family values, independence and life lessons
- A wonderful starting point for exploring themes of resilience, strength in the face of adversity and sustainability

Age range 5 to 8

After a great flood, a grandmother, her two grandchildren and their pet rabbit must learn to survive living on their rooftop garden, relying on scarce resources and limited space. Days turn into weeks, and weeks into months, but through life lessons and words of wisdom, hope emerges.

Higher Ground is an inspiring coming-of-age tale of resilience, courage and spirit that illuminates how life can be beautiful even in the darkest of times.

'I enjoyed thinking about how the machinery sounds would interact with people's day. Perhaps one of the most special things for me about this book, is the idea that people can hear music in their lives if they listen closely and use their imagination.' – Jennifer Loakes

About the author and illustrator:

Jennifer Loakes is an internationally published children's author based in sunny Brisbane. The Construction Site Band is her fourth book with Windy Hollow Books. Since she was a little girl, Jennifer's been listening to stories, reading stories, and thinking up stories of her own. When stories take a back seat, Jennifer works as a psychologist and enjoys spending time with her family and being at the beach.

Kelly Canby is an award-winning internationally published illustrator and author of over two dozen books for children. Kelly was born in London, England, but has lived in Australia since the age of three, which is probably around the same age she started playing with pencils and crayons, and it was probably only a few years after that that she decided playing with pencils and crayons was something she wanted to do for the rest of her life.

JAPANESE YOKAI

Explore a Mythical World of Monsters, Demons and Magical Creatures

FLEUR DAUGEY, ILLUSTRATED BY SANDE THOMMEN

- A richly illustrated guide to 30 mythical and magical Japanese creatures in picture book format by a French writer/illustrator team known for their Japanese-themed children's books
- Japanese yokai monsters feature in animated films and video games, and are hugely popular with kids
- Targets upper elementary readers, yet is appealing for YA and older readers as well
- Combines charming illustrations with creepy tales and overviews of creatures from the yokai world
- For fans of rude (ill-mannered) humour and body humour: contains references to flatulence and oversized scrotums

Age range 8+

Have you ever seen a yokai?

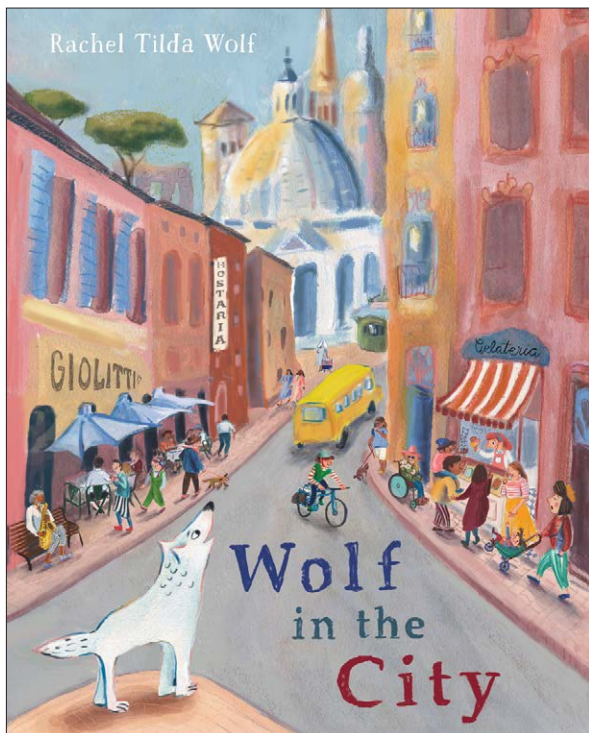

In Japanese, the word yokai refers to magical apparitions and mysterious events. These mythical creatures give a name and a form to the strange and uncanny things happening all around us.

This colourful guide in picture book format is a funny, fast and slightly scary introduction to the stars of the Japanese yokai world.

The classic tales and descriptions by Fleur Daugey combine with Sande Thommen's delightful illustrations to introduce over 30 wild and weird creatures, including:

- The Kitsune, a freaky fox with paranormal, supernatural powers
- The Kasa-obake, a one-eyed one-legged umbrella with a long, slithery tongue
- Kurokamikiri, a shaggy bearlike beast that sneaks up on you and cuts your hair
- Nuppeppo, a flabby, wrinkly blob that lives in graveyards and smells of rotten meat
- Hanako, a creepy little girl who haunts the toilets of elementary school bathrooms
- And many more!

Yokai are out there, lurking among us – creating mischief and mayhem, or in some cases helping us or just having fun. With Japanese Yokai, the next time something eerie or strange happens, you'll know who's responsible!

WOLF IN THE CITY

RACHEL TILDA WOLF

- Gorgeous colour and soft, attractive artwork from a debut author and artist
- An appealing main character who goes on a quest for fulfilment
- Explores the need to be appreciated, and the importance of finding out where you belong
- Humourous, with a dig at vanity and selfishness
- Rachel has been shortlisted for the World Illustration Award

Age range 3 to 6

A warm and amusing story about learning to appreciate what you already have, by a talented debut picture book artist.

Wolf lived on a plinth in a tired old square on the edge of a vast and magnificent city. Taken for granted and pooped on by Pigeon, she longs to be admired and to find her place amongst the famous statues in the City Centre. One day she sets off on the bus to do just that, but she discovers that the city statues are mean and selfish.

Wolf soon realises that she misses home, and heads back to her old square only to find that her friends there have missed her just as much.

With warmth and humour, this delight of a debut picture book by author and illustrator Rachel Tilda Wolf explores the need to be appreciated and the importance of finding 'home'.

LALA THE MEMORY COLLECTOR

A Graphic Novel

SUI KOHNO

- A poignant tale about a girl who cannot prevent herself from becoming personally involved in the stories of those who have perished!
- Will be of great interest to fans of manga fantasy, adventure and the supernatural
- Reads right-to-left, in the Japanese style

Age range 12 to 18

Is death really the end if memories live on?

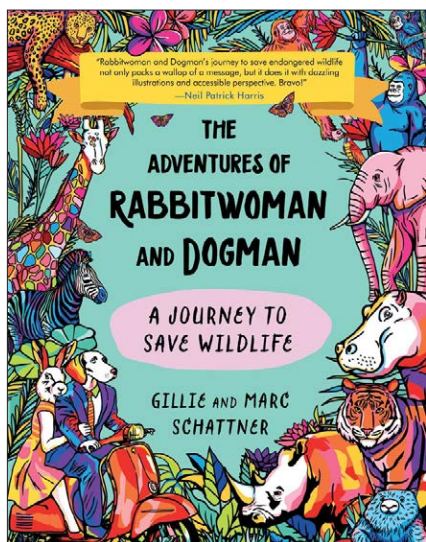

Like most girls, Lala loves music, her friends and her family. However, Lala is not like most girls. Lala is a 'collector' from the Memory Clan, a mysterious group of enchanted beings who have one purpose in life – they visit humans who have recently died or are on the verge of death to collect and preserve their memories.

Unique lives create unique endings. No two are the same. The Memory Clan's purpose is to keep each person's stories alive. However, the clan also has a simple rule: 'Do not get involved in human affairs.' For Lala, this isn't easy since she is easily entranced by humans and their stories. But in the process, she risks losing everything and everyone she loves.

MUSIC FOR TIGERS
MICHELLE KADARUSMAN

- Now in an enhanced paperback edition!
- STEM themes, and a refreshing partnership of science and art with Louisa's focus on violin eventually marrying with the conservation efforts of her family
- Critically praised presentation of a main character's Autism Spectrum Disorder
- Compelling setting in the Tasmanian rainforest; includes a map of the world with Tasmania inset

Age range 8 to 12

Shipped halfway around the world to spend the summer with her mum's eccentric Australian relatives, middle schooler and passionate violinist Louisa is prepared to be resentful.

But life at the family's remote camp in the Tasmanian rainforest is intriguing, to say the least. There are pig-footed bandicoots, scary spiders, weird noises and odours in the night, and a quirky boy named Colin who cooks the most amazing meals. Not the least strange is her Uncle Ruff, with his unusual pet and veiled hints about something named Convict Rock.

Finally, Louisa learns the truth: Convict Rock is a sanctuary established by her great-grandmother Eleanor – a sanctuary for Tasmanian tigers, Australia's huge marsupials that were famously hunted into extinction almost a hundred years ago. Or so the world believes.

MANDEEP'S CLOUDY DAYS

KULJINDER KAUR BRAR, ILLUSTRATED BY SAMRATH KAUR

- Mandeep shows a range of emotions and learns how to cope with turbulent feelings and changes at home
- Mandeep uses journaling as a coping strategy and her exhibits self-regulation

Age range 4 to 7

A beautiful picture book exploring how to cope with difficult and complex emotions when we're away from the people we love.

Spending time with her dad makes Mandeep's days shine. They have cha parties, perform Bhangra shows, and best of all, they write jokes together in her favourite unicorn journal. But when Dad starts a job as a truck driver, he starts being away from home most of the week. Without Dad, storm clouds start taking over Mandeep's sunny days, casting a shadow on all the things she used to love doing. Can anything help Mandeep feel better?

CLIMATE CHAMPIONS

15 Women Fighting for Your Future

RACHEL SARAH

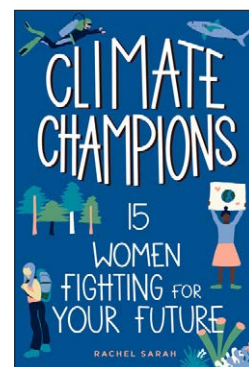

'This book promises an introduction to 15 women climate champions, but it delivers far more...the women's stories offer hope and inspiration.' – Booklist, starred review

- Now in paperback!
- New price point and format ideal for school library collections
- Accessible and energetic profiles of the victories and struggles of scientists who are working on behalf of the planet

Age range 12+

These 15 contemporary climate champions are on the frontlines of science to create a sustainable future on Earth.

They are climate scientists, journalists, professors, academics, researchers, and policy makers from around the world who draft policies with real-world impact, run science labs to find new answers to old problems, and lead organisations at the forefront of change. These women do not shy away from showing how racial and social injustices lie at the root of so many climate-related issues.
