WHITE NOISE

RAELKE GRIMMER

- Contemporary young adult novel exploring grief, autism, friendship and identity set in Darwin by debut local Northern Territory writer Raelke Grimmer
- National publicity campaign by Brendan Fredericks PR

Age range 13+

Fifteen-year-old Emma is woken up by her dad's nightmares. Again.

On Friday evenings they go running at East Point Reserve to escape. Escape the ripples of grief that still chase them three years after her mum's death; escape Emma's autism diagnosis; escape her dad's work as an emergency room doctor.

At school, Emma has won a spot on the beach volleyball Sports Institute program. The spot that her best friend Summer desperately wanted. And Summer's family are moving to the other side of town. Their friendship has kept Emma going since her mum's death but now things are changing between them and change isn't something Emma can outrun.

Set in tropical Darwin, White Noise is an achingly true portrayal of girlhood, grief, and autism from the authentic and gripping voice of debut author Raelke Grimmer.

About the author:

About the author and illustrator:

Kaye Baillie has been fascinated by yellow-tailed black cockatoos ever since she first saw them lope across the skies in a tall banksia tree near her home on the Surf Coast in Victoria. She loves watching them lope across the skies and the unique sounds of their calls. From her research, Kaye has written a poetic and vivid story portraying the first vulnerable months of life for a young yellow-tailed black cockatoo and how he overcomes life and death challenges with help from his protective parents. Kaye's previous picture book with Windy Hollow Books, When the Waterhole Dries Up illustrated by Max Hamilton, was shortlisted in the 2022 CBCA Book Awards. She's thrilled to be creating another book with Max and Windy Hollow.

Max Hamilton is a CBCA and Whitley award winning illustrator, a graphic designer and most enthusiastically a maker of children's books. She enjoys noticing the little details in things and loves to get lost in the world of illustration and stories. Max lives with her family and their cuddly dog in Sydney, Australia.

With a passion for colour and textures, she aims to create happy images to evoke emotion and thought in young and old minds alike.

IN THE YARD OF FARMER TOM

LYNETTE LONGARETTI, ILLUSTRATED BY MAIA BATUMASHVILI

- Gorgeous lyrical language – including assonance, alliteration, consonance, and lilting cadence – makes for a great read-aloud
- An amusing, charming story about what can happen when one breaks the rules
- Young readers will delight in the witty and vibrant depictions of the farmyard characters and their setting, complementing this humorous and engaging story

Age range 5+

In the yard of Farmer Tom lives Tiddles the cat, Harriet Rose the horse, Penelope Pig, and Theodora Mouse, and they have their eye on the brand-new barn on top of the hill. It is large, it is warm, it is grand, indeed. It seems like the perfect home.

Thinking no one will notice, they sneak in and settle down for the night, only to be woken by a noisy and scary surprise the next morning – Farmer Tom’s new tractor – in this amusing and beautifully lyrical tale of four characters who break the rules and get more than they bargained for.

This wonderful story is complimented by vivid and humorous illustrations that perfectly capture the farmyard adventure.

THE VOYAGE

STÉPHANE SERVANT, ILLUSTRATED BY AUDREY SPIRY

- A stunning tribute to travel, adventure, and the joy of exploring the world
- Depicts parents supporting their children being independent and going out into the world as they grow older

Age range 7+

A swashbuckling tale of leaving home, and the joy of adventure. Drawn to the horizon since she was small, the heroine of this story longs to discover what lies beyond it. She builds herself a boat, with the help of her parents, who know they cannot keep her on the little island they call home.

With courage, joy, and the gift of the most brilliant of swords from her parents, she sets off. She sails through storms, faces down sea monsters, and comes to the aid of lost sailors. In the market of a distant port, she finds a child, who she adopts as her own. The young boy shares her desire to explore and see the world, so together, they set sail once more. After years of adventuring, they find the island that was once her home. Coming to rest on the shore, our heroine sends her son off on his own voyage, with the most brilliant of swords.

BENEATH
CORI DOERRFELD

- Now in paperback!
- A sweet and tender picture book showing that there’s always more under the surface than what we can see
- Empowers children to explore and examine their own feelings
- A wonderful tool to start discussion when dealing with a bereavement or other difficult situation

Age range 3 to 6

In this stunning story from the creator of The Rabbit Listened, a child and their grandfather take a walk in the woods and discover more about themselves.

Finn is in a horrible mood and doesn’t want to talk about it, but after some persuading, agrees to go for a hike with Grandpa.

Throughout their forest walk, they see many different things: big, strong trees with networks of roots growing underneath, still water with schools of fish swimming below, and an expectant bird with eggs nestled under her. Grandpa explains that people also have hidden feelings beneath the surface, and despite appearances, may be feeling the same way you do.

BOTTLED

A Picture Book to Help Children Share Their Feelings

TOM BRASSINGTON, JO BRASSINGTON

- Tom and Jo Brassington are both primary school teachers with first-hand experience of helping young children navigate their emotions
- The book is a perfect tool for parents and teachers alike, and many teachers have already introduced it into their curriculum
- For fans of Tom Percival's Big Bright Feelings books, The Colour Monster by Anna Llenas, Find Your Calm by Gabi Garcia

Age range 4 to 12

This is a bottle.

You will have seen bottles before.

What are you bottling up?

Maybe now's the time to explore.

It is important to share our feelings rather than bottling them up inside. With Bottled, teachers Tom and Jo Brassington help children of all ages understand why and how they should express their emotions in a healthy way. A starting point for early, crucial conversations surrounding mental wellbeing, this book is an invaluable tool which parents, guardians and teachers can use to create emotionally honest spaces for children in their care.

ON THE SMALL HILL WHERE THE GIRLS TAKE OFF THEIR SHOES

JAIRO BUITRAGO, ILLUSTRATED BY LINDA WOLFGRUBER

- A marvellous picture book about the history of the world, told through the story of one small hill, from world renowned master storyteller Jairo Buitrago
- Provides kids with a creative way to think about the history that has happened all around us

Age range 4 to 9

Somewhere in this world there is a small hill, where three girls are taking off their shoes. But many thousands of years ago, a dinosaur saw a brilliant star falling as he stood on that same hill. The ice age comes and goes, castles are built and fall into ruin. The world grows and changes around the hill: trees are planted, a family seeks refuge, and houses are built below it. Now it's time for the girls to put their shoes back on and go home. This beautiful book, with art from Hans Christian Andersen shortlisted illustrator Linda Wolfgruber, provides us with a way to imagine the incredible things that happened in our world before we were around.

- The illustrations suggest that the father in the story might be a victim of enforced disappearances in Latin America

Age range 3 to 6

A simple, imaginative story depicting the complex emotional reality of a girl whose father no longer lives at home. The girl conjures up an imaginary companion a lion who will join her on the long walk home from school. He will help her to pick up her baby brother from daycare and shop at the store (which has cut off the family's credit), and he'll keep her company all along the way until she is safely home.

LION AND MOUSE

JAIRO BUITRAGO, ILLUSTRATED BY RAFAEL YOCKTENG, TRANSLATED BY ELISA AMADO

- Lion and Mouse* is a fresh retelling of the Aesop fable about friendship and mutual dependence regardless of size or status

Age range 3 to 6

Funny, fresh and very modern, this update on the fable of the lion and the mouse is a marvellous tale of a relationship between two unlikely friends.

One day, the mouse marches into the lion's den without an invitation. Before the lion can eat him for breakfast, the mouse begs for mercy. 'If you let me go, I might be able to return the favour.' The lion laughs at the idea of such a small, insignificant creature helping him out until the next day when the mouse frees the lion from a hunter's trap.

STORIES

HENRY JAMES

- The Turn of the Screw & More Ghost Stories marks the first new title for the Children's Signature Classics series
- While The Turn of the Screw is read in classrooms year-round, this ghost story collection is also perfect for Halloween reading

Age range 12+

The Turn of the Screw, a novella written by Henry James in 1898, is perhaps one of the most widely read ghost stories in classrooms across the country. The story's ambiguity and characters' unreliability also mark the book as a work of impressionism, an important literary movement that's often left out of the children's literary 'canon'.
